

Protesters attack Cypriot TV station over COVID-19 measures

20 lipca 2021

On July 18, people protesting against COVID-19 measures attacked Sigma TV in Nicosia, capital of Cyprus. They damaged the lobby and burned cars outside the building. The TV station has been targeted in previous protests against COVID-19 measures as it is seen as holding a hardline stance against anti-vaccination campaigners.